

AMY P. TRUNNELL

CERTIFIED PUBLIC ACCOUNTANT

Experience

Amy P. Trunnell, CPA

1996 to present

Full-service accounting, auditing and tax practice

- Accounting services for nonprofits – consulting, preparing budgets, performing monthly reconciliations, preparing monthly financial statements, assisting in draft of internal control procedures, and providing audit support at year end
- Nonprofit – preparing Form 990; preparing financial statement compilations, reviews and audits with full disclosures
- Quasi-governmental – preparing audited financial statements in accordance with GASB
- Insurance Trusts – preparing Form 1041; preparing audited financial statements
- Small business and personal accounting and tax – preparing tax forms, providing accounting services and payroll services; preparing financial statements and forecasts/projections

Public Accounting

1981 to 1996

Arthur Andersen & Co. and accounting firms in Kansas City and Augusta area

- Regulated industries auditing
- Nonprofit and general industry accounting, audit and tax services

Education and Professional Achievements

Certified Public Accountant, Maine

40+ hours annual continuing professional education requirements, including GASB

Member AICPA and MSCP

BBA, Accounting; Stephen F. Austin State University

Community Service

Treasurer, Kennebec Land Trust

Speech and Debate coach, Maranacook Community High School

References

Wendy Ault, MELMAC Education Foundation 622-3066

Kathryn Markovchick, Forman S. Acton Educational Foundation 446-2150

February 2014-2015

200 Old Kent's Hill Rd, Readfield, ME 05869

amyp@trunnellcpa.com